EXPLANATION

When merchandise of the character of Bendheim's stock is put on sale at ridiculous prices, such as "Fruit of the Loom" muslin at 34c when the wholesale price at mill today is 42c it stands to reason that stock would not be large enough to supply all requests. Naturally some customers who come late are disappointed. We regret this very much, but our ads always state the quantity we have, if possible. This in itself should encourage "Early Buying" as the only way to secure the cream of our bargains.

TO-DAY'S AD—States the quantity of limited bargains. Where quantity is not mentioned, we feel we have sufficient to last the day. If interested in the other items we urge our customers not to put off buying until afternoon or evening.—COME EARLY.
